COMMITTEE REPORTS:

City Report:

City Council: (Any Council Member)

- working on a day time teen curfew – this would apply to kids who are not in school when they should be
- kids from other areas are coming to Cheviot to get away from Cincinnati where a curfew does exist
- additional discussion of snow removal – some people have gotten fined
- crime alerts – send to old members for the next two months with a note stating this is something you will continue to get if you become a paid member
- possibility of sending out snow emergency alerts to the members
- two tax levies on the May ballot but they are just renewals
- looking into getting stimulus money for Glenmore

WESTFEST UPDATE: Chris

June 26th and 27th

Chick-Fil-A will be a major sponsor – they will serve on Saturday but not on Sunday

Chris would like to find a grocery store for a major sponsor– she is putting Peggy and

Kevin in charge of this

All of the past major sponsors are coming back

Looking for other major sponsors – Esther Price?

Baba's does not seem interested but we will keep trying

Still working on Outback and Buffalo Wild Wings

Committee chair meeting on Monday – Feb 22nd at 6:00

Few requests for merchant booths at this time

Weber's grill – 1.00 hot dogs and Cone Zone novelties

Bands are going well – seems to be a great deal of interest – wide range to pick from

Mike has not e-mailed back yet about graphics

Peggy will sub-contract out a power point display (to herself and her children) for WestFest – In future, maybe we could have a contest in the high schools to develop a power point presentation

REBOLD FOUNDATION UPDATE

Gave out $11,850 to thirteen schools – everyone who applied received money

NEW BUSINESS:

Energy Summit – Feb. 18th at 5:30 at Schaeffer Center at Elder – focuses on the business districts
