WESTFEST UPDATE: Chris
June 26th and 27th

19 food booths are in

Champions is hoping to relocate before WestFest and would like us to hold their spot at WestFest Rusty, from the company that provides our tents for WestFest, was shot this past weekend. Keep him in your thoughts. We are holding out and hoping he will be well enough to provide us with the tents again this year.

Mike is working on the poster – sketch shows a car with a girl leaning against it holding on to a guitar.

Will finish up the major sponsors by April 10th

Looking for a new sponsor for one of the stages – we will charge around $1500.00

Grill booth will be run by CWCA and the profits will go to the Rebold Foundation – working on Skyline, Gold Star, and Price Hill Chili to provide coneys, chili and hotdogs. Sweeney's Cone Zone will be providing ice cream

There are vendor booths available and possibly two food booths

OLD BUSINESS:

Banner poles went out for bid, looking for best price and who can get them in the ground as quick as possible. We will have to make new banners for these poles and will put the old banner on the fence in front of Cheviot School.

Banner poles will be right outside the Firehouse

The city will own the poles but CWCA and Kiwanis will fund the poles. When groups want to use the poles they will have to get a permit from the city to use the poles and will have to pay a small monetary fee.

NEW BUSINESS:
